Our Philosophy

Since our establishment in 2000, our team has grown from a handful of attorneys to its current mark of over 30. This growth is primarily driven by one factor:

Success.

At the law office of Bailey & Wyant, PLLC, we get results for our clients. We are energetic and aggressive lawyers who understand that reaching a resolution is one thing, but reaching the right resolution in an efficient and cost-effective manner is entirely something else. Our ability to reach the right resolution with a focus on our clients' best interests has led to an ever-growing base of clients made up of individuals, businesses, and governmental entities who turn to us to successfully resolve the most complicated and sensitive legal matters.

We are not just another law firm. Our lawyers thrive on resolving the most challenging matters, and are dedicated to providing the most personal attention. We understand the importance of your case and pride ourselves on promptly responding to emails and calls. We listen to you so that we can meet your unique needs. We understand that time is not always a luxury you have. Our team can quickly resolve matters when necessary. We are not interested in wasting time and energy; we are interested in providing you with real results and being the team that you can turn to in any legal dilemma.
